REVOLUTIONS

Before man started for this earthl; strand, While yet upon the verge of Heaver he stood,

God put a heap of letters in his hand And bade him make with them what word he could,

And man has turn'd them many times made Greece,
Rome, England, France—yet, nor is vain essay'd.
Way, after way, changes that nevel ceased.
The letters have combined; something was made.

DAVIS THEATRE.

Attractive Features of The Arthur Catterdon Company.

Catterdon Company.

This company which will hold the boards at Davis Theatre during the current week is well remembered for the excellent impression made during their stay here last year.

Theatregoers were pleased with the modesty displayed by Mr. Chatterdon, whose artistic, yet forceful interpretations won instant recognition. The equipment was adequate to say the least. His support was equal to that usually provided for attractions playing at high prices. As a consequence theatregoers are now looking forward to a week of genuine treats. They know a list of plays such as are offered by this company is beyond the calibre of the usual stock company. But in looking over the roster of Mr. Chatterdon's company, they see many names of recognized standing. Especially is this true of Lawrence Brooke, James Huntley, Walter Davis, William McCarthy, Earl Howell and the Misses May Davenport, and Mr. Caskey and Dorothy Beardsley particularly are they interested to see the noted leading lady, Miss Adelyne Bushnell, of whom they have heard much in praise. While their old-time favorite Mr. Rogers Barker whom they remember as leading man with the Poli Stock can always depend on a favorite Mr. Rogers Barker whom they remember as leading man with the Poli Stock can always depend on a cordial reception in Norwich. To sum up. They fee, assured that this capable and popular star will present every play in keeping with the aims and purposes of the authors and maintaining an atmosphere that is alway correct from a moral point of view as well as giving each character ample

POPULAR LECTURES

The enthusiastic reception of the first of the Slater hall course of popu-lar lectures by the large and inter-ested audience forecasts the success of rect from a moral point of view as well as giving each character ample latitude. Sale for the entire week is in full swing and ladies' tickets for to-night have almost reached the limit an indication that the proper thing to is to place orders for seats at once.

COLONIAL THEATRE

Edmund Breese in Mammoth Fivemanner more entertaining than Prof. Phelps with his remarkable sense of humor and inimitable style. In view Familiar to almost everyone is the wonderful story of The Master Mind, which is the superb five-reel spectacle at the Colonial theatre today. The foremost dramatic star, Mr. Edmund Breese, is seen to excellent advantage in the part of Richard Allen, a quaint individual who takes pleasure in consealing his identity by playing the side of weight of the fact that the, theatre is the most popular form of entertainment, Professor Phelps' observations on the drama will be of very general interest. It is certain that he will be extended a most cordial welcome this afternoon by his many friends. Tickets may be purchased of George A. Davis, or at Slater hall before the lecture.
